

“The Quilt Story” gave clues about a family and a special quilt. Think about something special in your family. It could be a toy or a book. Now write a riddle with clues about that special thing. Remember to use adjectives to describe that special thing. The last sentence should tell what that special thing is.

[illegible]